Dear Hal,

That you have a printed card makes me hope your situation has improved.

I've been sitting on the small fraction of what will be in Post Mortem that the Enquirer used for years. It is not new to me. I sold these rights to get to be able to print the book. I hope to soon with what that adds to what I've been squirreling aside.

It is a very large book. I plan 660pp, almost 200 in facsimile. It will have to be $10.75 by insured mail. I'm not offering any except insured because of renewed bad mail experiences with Whitewash IV.

Too much stacked up to answer the other questions. Some are in Post Mortem.

Hope your situation has improved.

Sincerely,
